VOLUME 5 INDEX

NO. 1, FALL 1994	1–114
NO. 2, WINTER 1994	115–230
NO. 3, SPRING 1995	231–332
NO. 4, SUMMER 1995	333–459

A

Abortion controversy, 454
Abramson, A. J., "Sources of Data on Nonprofit Finance," 443–451
Accessibility, board member, 342, 346, 350
Accountability: crisis in, 303–304; and donor types, 70–74; in European countries, 111; legal liability and, 69–74; of nonprofits to donors, 67–83; standards for, 74–76. See also Liability; Stakeholders
Acquisitions, 377. See also Mergers
Adams, Howard & Greeley, 397, 398, 399–403
Advocate role, 175, 182
Affinity credit cards, 250
Age, individual: and corporate philanthropy, 254; and religious giving, 60
Age, organizational: and board behavior, 178, 185, 187, 188, 189–191, 193, 356; and organizational survival, 20, 26, 34
Alabama, 71
Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), 165, 166
Altruism: and cause-related marketing, 250–251; correlations of, with volunteering, 366–367, 368, 369, 372; and donor motivation, 143; measures for, 366; and sociocentric cultures, 361–363, 366, 368, 372. See also Motivations, donor
Altruist philanthropic style, 256, 257, 258
Alumni, major donor, 411–431; who give outright major gifts, 421–423, 429; who make bequests, 427–429; who make irrevocable trusts, 424–426, 429
American Antiquarian Society, 222–223
American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel, 445
American Express, 249, 250
American Jewish Archives, 223
Annals of Public and Cooperative Economics, 103–104
Anthropology of gift giving, 294–296
Appalachian Mountain Club (AMC), 85–91
"Archival Sources and the Study of American Philanthropy," 221–224
Archives, philanthropical, 221–224
ARNOVA, 101–102, 103, 104
ARNOVA-L list-serve, 103
Års Idraetsklub, 284
Articles: "Board Members' Influence on the Government-Nonprofit Relationship," 173–196; "Cause-Related Marketing, Philanthropy, and the Arts," 249–260; "Corporate Philanthropy: Gift or Business Transaction?" 291–301; "Effective Nonprofit Board Members as Seen by Executives and Board Chairs," 337–358; "Human Service Organizations and Self-Help Groups: Can They Collaborate?" 159–172; "Improving Direct Mail Fundraising Through Segmentation Research," 141–158; "Is There a Third Way? A Comparative Analysis of How the Law Treats Workers in the Nonprofit, Private-for-Profit, and Public Sectors," 197–211; "The Liability of Nonprofits to Donors," 67–83; "Local Development Agencies: Supporting Voluntary Action," 37–51; "The Major Gift Donor Relationship: An Analysis of Donors and Contributions," 411–432; "Merging Nonprofit Organizations: Analysis of a Case Study," 377–391; "Nonprofit Boards and Perceptions of Funding," 3–18; "On the Malfunction of the Generic Approach in Small Voluntary Associations," 275–290; "The Organization of Religious Congregations: Tackling the Issues," 261–274;
"The Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership," 233–248; "Pursuit of Mission: The Rise and Fall of Elite Nonprofit Leadership," 393–409;

 © Jossey-Bass Publishers

"The Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership," (continued) "Religious Giving in the United States," 53–66; "Structure and Adequacy of Human Service Facilities: Challenges for Nonprofit Managers," 117–140; "Volunteers from Corporations: Work Cultures Reflect Values Similar to the Voluntary Organization's," 359–375; "What Affects Nonprofit Survival?" 19–36
Arts and Business Council of New York, 251–260
Arts organizations: cause-related marketing for, 251–260; philanthropic styles and, 257. See also Cultural organizations
Assemblies of God, 56, 57
Association affiliation, and board behavior, 178, 185, 187, 188, 190
Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management, 103
Associations, as data sources, 445
AT&T, 454
Attendance, board member, 342, 347, 351
Attorneys general, 72, 74, 77, 320, 445
Australia: religious congregations in, 262; voluntary sector in, 278
Australia/New Zealand Third Sector Research, 103
Authority: in merged organizations, 386; and organizational change, 265, 268; in religious congregations, 265, 267–268, 270; typologies of, 267–268, 270
Autonomy: abuse of trusteeship, 393–409; protection of nonprofit, 175–176. See also Buffer role; Values-guardian role

B

Balda, J. B., "The Liability of Nonprofits to Donors," 67–83
Bania, N., "The Development of State-Level Nonprofit Data Bases," 317–325
Barber, D. M., Finding Funding: The Comprehensive Guide to Grant Writing, 217–219
Barriers to entry, 312
Batsleer, J., Issues in Voluntary and Non-Profit Management: A Reader, 93–97
Behavioral enactments, 238–240, 241–242, 244–245. See also Theories-in-use
Ben-Ner, A., 327–328
Bequests: by alumni, 427–429; and donor/development-effort relationship, 414, 415, 416, 417–418, 419, 430
Bielefeld, W., "What Affects Nonprofit Survival?" 19–36
Billis, D., "Editors' Notes," 1–2, 115–116, 231–232, 333–335
Bloksberg-Fireovid, F. E., "Carol Marshall," 213–216
Blumle, E. B., 111–112
Board-centered leadership, 236, 246
Board chairs: consensus among, for board-member assessment, 345, 354; cooperation of, with chief executive officers, 354–355; criteria of, for assessing board members, 337, 343–354
Board composition: and board influence, 178–179, 183, 184, 193; and funding perceptions, 7–8, 9–16, 90. See also Legitimacy
Board member assessment criteria: accessibility, 346, 350; attendance, 342, 347, 351; board chairs' views on, 337–356; chief executive officers' views on, 337–356; commitment to mission, 346, 350; constituent representation/empathy, 348, 353; constructive problem solver, 347, 351; flexibility, 347, 351; importance of, 337–338; and Ingram criteria, 345, 350–353; future research on, hypotheses for, 355–356; and job descriptions, 354; leadership, 342, 349, 353; and NCIB criteria, 340–341, 345, 350–353; policy/management functions, 348, 352; practical applications of, 354–355; problem framer, 349, 353; rapport with staff, 348, 352; and recruitment, 355; selflessness, 348, 352; special talents/skills, 342, 346, 350; study of, conceptual framework and methodology for, 341–343; study of, limitations of, 338–339; study of, and prior research, 339–341; resource developer, 347, 352; understanding of organizational niche, 347, 351; worker bee, 349, 353
"Board Members' Influence on the Government-Nonprofit Relationship," 173–196

Boards of directors: activities of, 8, 9–16; behaviors of, variables in, 176–180, 180–184; books about, 440–441; boundary-spanning role of, 173–174; buffer role of, 175–176, 181, 182, 184, 186, 189, 191, 192; characteristics of, 7–8, 9–16, 90; and chief executives, 179, 235–236, 246; effectiveness of, 339; expectations of/for, 338, 354; facilitator role of, 175, 181, 182, 184, 186, 187, 188–189, 190, 191–192; influence of, on funding perceptions, 3–16; influence of, on government-nonprofit relationship, 173–196; influence of, on organizational performance, 4–6, 14; literature on, 337, 339–341; methodology for study of, 180–184; and organizational uncertainty, 4–5; political advocacy role of, 175, 180, 182 184, 186, 187, 188–189, 190, 191–192; professional volunteers on, 359; public image of, in vignette, 433–438; recruitment of members for, 355, 440–441; role of, in organizational change, 89–90; roles of, measurement variables for, 180–184; roles of, regression analysis of, 186–191; roles of, typology of, 175–176; values-guardian role of, 176, 181, 182, 184, 186, 189, 191, 192

Book Reviews: "Fundraising: From Art to Science," 217–219; "In Search of Common Ground About the Commons," 311–315; "Nonprofit Management Education Through Distance Learning," 93–97; "Recruiting, Developing, and Managing Volunteers," 439–441

Boundary-spanning role: of boards of directors, 173–174; of chief executives, 236, 245

Brahmanic culture, 294–295

Buchanan, R. W., "Fundraising: From Art to Science," 217–219

Buffer role, 175–176, 181, 182

Building codes, 126

Bulletin Board, 113–114, 229–230, 329–331, 457–459

Bureaucracy, 275; and mergers, 384, 387; and religious organizations, 266, 267; and small sports associations, 282

Burger King, 249

Bush administration, 19

C

California, 69, 71, 72, 73–74, 76

California Nonprofit Database, 445

Canada, 278

Capital campaigns, 217; return from, 218

Career advancement: as donor motivation, 144, 151; effect of mergers on, 378

Carnegie, A., 223

"Carol Marshall," 213–216

Carothers, N., 398, 400–401, 403

Carre, P., 404

Case-based fundraising, 57, 58, 62

Case Institute of Technology, 394–395, 397, 398–399, 401

Case Western Reserve University, 224, 403, 404. See also Mandel Center

Catholic churches, 53–55, 56, 57, 61–62, 63

Cause-related marketing: advantages and disadvantages of, 250–251; business demographics in, 253, 254; business goals in, 252–253; business satisfaction with, 255–256, 258–259; financial importance of, 250, 251; with medium-sized businesses, 251–260; and philanthropic styles, 256–258; source of funds used for, 254, 256; study of, 251–258; versus traditional philanthropy, 252–258; type of arts organization supported by, 253, 255

"Cause-Related Marketing, Philanthropy, and the Arts," 249–260

Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University, 303, 307–308

Change, organizational: board's role in, 89–90; chief executive officer's role in, 86, 87; implementation of, in example, 85–91; in religious congregations, 265–266; strategies for, 88–89

Chief executive officers (CEOs): activism of, with board, 179, 183; boundary-spanning role of, 236, 245; compensation of, 104–105; consensus among, regarding board-member assessment, 345, 354; cooperation of, with board chairs, 354–355; criteria of, for assessing board members, 337, 343–354; effective, research studies on, 233–248; effects of mergers on, 379; influence of, on board behavior, 179, 184, 185,

Chief executive officers (continued)
187, 188, 189–191; influence of, on organizational change, 86, 87, 91; influence of, on organizational performance, 4–5, 14; job tenure of, 179, 185, 187, 190; legal liabilities of, 77–78; legal rights of, 72–73; model for effective, 245–246; political frame of, 234, 236–237, 238, 240, 241–247; psychological centrality of, 235–236, 246, 276–277; surveys of, 6–16, 180–184, 238–244. See also Leadership
"Children's Family Foundation" vignette, 433–438
Christian Action Council, 454
Chronicle of Philanthropy, The, 104
Church of England, 262–263, 264
Church of the Latter Day Saints, 56
Church-sect framework, 267
Churches. See Congregations; Religious organizations
Civic organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26
Civil Rights Act of 1991, 199, 208
Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VII (Equal Employment Opportunity), 198, 201; in nonprofit versus other sectors, 206; in nonprofit sector, 205. See also Equal Employment Opportunity
Civil society orientation, 285–286
Clan culture, 362
Clark, H. T., 398
Classification schemes, for nonprofit organizations, 317, 320, 447–448
Clearinghouse of Statewide Nonprofit Sector Databases, 321–323
Clergy: defined, 262; role of, 263–265, 268, 270
Cleveland, Ohio, 393–409
Clients: development of, 13; of merged organizations, 385, 389; referral of, 164–165
Coalition, 166–167
Coca-Cola, 251
Cole, K. M., Leadership and Management of Volunteer Programs: A Guide for Volunteer Administrators, 439–441
Cole, M. T., "Is There a Third Way? A Comparative Analysis of How the Law Treats Workers in the Nonprofit, Private-for-Profit, and Public Sectors," 197–211
Columbia University, 402
Commentaries, 109–112, 225–227, 327–328, 453–455
Commission on Civil Rights, 396
Commons, the, 311–315
Commons, The: New Perspectives on Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 311–315
COMMUNET list-serve, 103
Communitarian philanthropic style, 256, 257, 258
Communitarianism, 304
Communitas, 267
Community-association framework, 267
Community-based organizations, executive training for, 225–227
Community development: and Local Development Agencies, 48; and Rural Community Councils, 43–44
Community Development Block Grant program, 120
Community involvement, and trusteeship mission, 393–409
Community services organizations (CSOs), 378, 379, 380–381; versus neighborhood self-management organizations, 382, 384–385
Compensation, of chief executive officers, 104–105
Competition: nonprofit versus for-profit, 105–106, 299–300; between nonprofit organizations, 377–378, 383
Concern for others, 362, 367, 369, 372
Conferences, on governmental policy, 101–103
Confidence, public. See Accountability
Conflict: in egocentric versus sociocentric cultures, 362–363; in mergers, 378, 387, 388–389; and professionalization, 283–284; in religious congregations, 263, 264
Conflict resolution, 236–237, 246. See also Political frame of leadership
Congregations: defined, 262; and denominational polity, 270; as nonprofit organizations, 268–271; organizational analysis of, 266–268; organizational change in, 265–266; organizational issues of, 261–274;

organizational theories and, 266–268; purposes and goals of, 262–263; and religious values, 265; role of clergy in, 263–265, 268, 270; specialist theory for, 270–271; stakeholders in, 262–263, 268. See also Jewish congregations; Religious organizations
Consolidations, 377. See also Mergers
Construction systems, 341–342
Consumers, as stakeholders, 327–328
Contracting. See Government contracting
Convergence, 282
Cooperation: advantages of, 169–170; between chief executive officers and board chairs, 354–355; and the commons, 311–315; interorganizational, 163–171
Co-optation, 282
Coordination, 165–166
Cornforth, C., Issues in Voluntary and Nonprofit Management: A Reader, 93–97
Corporate philanthropy: and big government, 299; business benefits of, 250; as business transaction, 292–294; cause-related marketing and, 249–260; and community bonding, 297, 298; and corporate influence, 283; corporate satisfaction with, 255–256, 258–259; and corporate self-interest, 250–251, 293; cultural context of, 294–296; financial importance of, in U.S., 250, 300; as gift giving, 291–301, 453–455; of medium-sized businesses, 251–260; motivations for, 250–251, 252–253, 293; reciprocity in, 299, 453–455; and Seven Faces framework of philanthropic styles, 256–258; status from, 298. See also Cause-related marketing; Volunteers
"Corporate Philanthropy: Gift or Business Transaction?" 291–301; commentary on, 453–455
Corporate political action committees (PACs), 453
Corporate veil, piercing the, 77–78, 79
Cost-benefit analysis, 362
Councils for Voluntary Service (CVSs), 38
Crises: and board influence, 5–6; and implementing organizational change, 85–86
Critical events, 235–236, 339–340
Cultural organizations, mortality/survival of, 24–33. See also Arts organizations
Culture, gift giving and, 294–296. See also Organizational culture
Cynicism, 303–304

D

Data bases on nonprofit sector: deficiencies of, 446–448; financial, 443–451; national, 317–319; state-level, national clearinghouse for, 321–323; state-level, role of, 318–321; state-level, sources of, 321–322, 445
Dawson's motivational scale, 143–144, 147–150, 151
Debt management, 110–111
Decentralization, 378, 379–380, 384, 387
Delaware, 71
Demographic segmentation, 147. See also Segmentation research
Denckla v. Independence Foundation, 72
Denmark, 275–290
Dependency, 362. See also Resource dependency
Derivative actions, 76–77
Designs for Fund-Raising: Principles, Patterns, Techniques (Seymour), 217–218
"Development of State-Level Nonprofit Data Bases, The," 317–325
Development. See Fundraising; Major donor relationship
Development officers, 412. See also Fundraisers
Devout philanthropic style, 256, 257, 258
Differentiation, 379, 387
Direct mail fundraising: "black box" approach to, 154; efficiency in, 156; for new versus existing donors, 156; through segmentation research, 141–158; using donor response lists for, 156
Direct marketing, 28
Discrimination, employment, 201; in nonprofit versus other sectors, 206, 209; in religious organizations, 201. See also Minimum wage and hour law
Disillusionment, 379
Distance learning, 93–97
Divergence, 282
Diversification, 282, 388

Dodson, D., How to Recruit Great Board Members: A Guide for Nonprofit Agencies, 439–441
Domain, 161, 164
Donations: for human services facilities, 130–131, 137; percentage of, through direct mail, 141. See also Corporate philanthropy; Gift types
Donor response lists, 156
Donors: accountability to, 67–83; alumni versus nonalumni, 412–431; fiduciary, 72–73; founder, 71; general-public type of, 70–72; geodemographic classification of, 145–146, 150, 152, 153; government, 74; legal rights of, 70–79; mail versus nonmail, 156; member type of, 73–74, 76–79; relationships with major, 411–432; segmentation research on, 141–158; as stakeholders, 327; and values, 144–145, 146, 150, 151. See also Giving; Major donor relationship; Motivations, donor; Philanthropy
Douglas, J., 305
du Pont, P. S., 223
Dynast philanthropic style, 256, 257, 258

E

Economic exchange: deemphasis on, in sociocentric cultures, 362–363, 367, 369, 370, 372; and egocentric work culture, 362, 372; versus gift giving, 292–294, 296–297
Economics, field of, 312–312, 313, 314–315
Editors' Notes, 1–2, 115–116, 231–232, 333–335
Education: continuing, fellowships for, 225–227; distance, 93–97; at K–12 level, 308; liberal versus professional, 305–306; for nonprofit management, 93–97, 225–227, 277, 278; for philanthropy, 305–309
Educational level: of corporate supporters, 254; of high-value donors, 155; and religious giving, 54, 60
Educational organizations: liability of, 71; mortality/survival of, 24, 25–26, 27, 29, 30, 32, 33
"Effective Nonprofit Board Members as Seen by Executives and Board Chairs," 337–358
Egocentric work culture, 361–362, 363; measures for, 366; power relationships in, 362; versus sociocentric work culture, 361–373
Elitism in leadership, case study, 393–409
Emotions Anonymous (EA), 166
Empathy, board member, 348, 353
Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), 198, 201; in nonprofit versus other sectors, 206–207, 208; in nonprofit sector, 205
Employees: and board influence, 182–183; clergy as, versus other roles, 263–265; effects of mergers on, 378–379; in nonprofit sector, 197; and organizational survival, 27. See also Personnel headings; Size, organizational
Employment at-will, 197, 198; changes in, 199; in nonprofit versus other organizations, 201, 203; in nonprofit sector, 204, 207
Enhancing the Volunteer Experience: New Insights on Strengthening Volunteer Participation, Learning, and Commitment, reviewed, 439–441
Environmental Defense Fund, 224
Environmental organizations: implementing change in, 85–91; mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27
Equal Employment Opportunity, 197, 198; changes in, 199; in nonprofit versus other sectors, 206, 208. See also Civil Rights Act
Equal Pay Act, 206
ES202 data, 320
Espoused statements, 238–240, 242, 244–245. See also Ideology; Values
Espoused theories, 239. See also Ideology; Values
Ethics: and management, 277; and moral action, 304–305; and public confidence, 304
Europe, nonprofit sector in, 111–112, 278–279
Evaluation, for nonprofit organizations, 285
Exchange. See Economic exchange; Gift giving
Exchange relationship, and resource dependency, 163–164
Executive directors. See Chief executive officers

Expenditures: for fundraising, 431; and organizational survival, 27–28, 29
Exxon Education Foundation, 308

F

Facilitator role, 175, 181, 182
Facilities, human service: costs of, 126–127, 131–132; distribution of, 122–123, 124, 125; fiscal constraints on, 119–120, 131–132; funding resources for, 127–132; importance of nonprofit, 118–120; inadequacy of, 117–118, 132–134; maintenance/improvement needs of, 126–127, 132; management of, 132–134; need for, 118–119, 125–127; and policy making, 136–137; projects for future, 127, 131, 132, 133; recovery of occupancy costs for, 128–130, 131; research study on, current, 120–135; structure of holdings, 123, 125; studies on, 118
Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), 198, 203, 206; in nonprofit sector, 204, 207–208
Falender, A., 2; interviewed, 85–91
Family business owners, 253, 254
Family status: of high-value donors, 155; and religious giving, 60
Features: "Carol Marshall," 213–216; "An Interview with Andy Falender," 85–91; "An Interview with Robert L. Payton," 303–309; "Shark Fundraising at the Foundation," 433–438
Federal funding cuts, 3, 19, 120
Fellowships, 225–227
Fiduciaries: legal rights of, 72–73; standards for, 75
File, K. M., "Cause-Related Marketing, Philanthropy, and the Arts," 249–260
Finance data: books and studies of, 446; deficiencies of existing sources of, 446–448; sources of, 444–446; uses for, 443–444
Financial advising, 13
Finding Funding: The Comprehensive Guide to Grant Writing, reviewed, 217–219
First Amendment, 201
Fisher, J. C., Leadership and Management of Volunteer Programs: A Guide for Volunteer Administrators, 439–441
Flexibility, board member, 347, 351
Folklore, 295
For-profit sector. See Private-for-profit sector
Force-field analysis, 383
Ford Foundation, 223, 321
Formalization, organizational, 162–163, 167, 269
Foster care agencies, executive compensation in, 105
Foundation Center, The, 445
Foundation News, 104
Foundations: archives of, 223; and cause-related marketing versus philanthropy, 256; sources of data on, 445
Frame analysis, 237–238; criteria for coding in, 240; results of, in chief executive study, 240–244
Frames of reference, 339, 341–342
Frequencies, diminishing, 343, 345
Funders: and organizational survival, 31–33, 34; of Rural Community Councils, 45, 46
Funding: adequacy of, 8–16; through cause-related marketing, 249–260; certainty/uncertainty in, 3, 7, 9–16; and critical events, 235–236; diversity in, 21, 28, 30–33, 34; for human service facilities, 119–120, 127–132, 135, 137; in merged organizations, 385; perceptions of, board influence on, 3–16; of Rural Community Councils, 45–46; of small sports associations, 279. See also Donors; Giving; Uncertainty
Fundraisers: effects of role of, 412; professionalization of, 217, 218
Fundraising: for building projects, 130–131, 132; and certainty, 12, 15; direct mail, 141–158; efficiency in, for major gifts, 412–413; joint, with business organizations, 249–260; for major gifts in university setting, 411–432; nonprofit sector finance data and, 443; and prospect identification, 412; and public confidence, 304; in religious organizations, 57–58, 60–62; research on, 411–412; techniques in, changes in, 217–219; and tracking development contacts, 431. See also Direct mail fundraising; Donors; Major donor relationship

"Fundraising: From Art to Science," 217–219
Future of the Nonprofit Sector, The, 101

G

Galbraith, K., 313
Game theory, 311, 313, 314
Garcia v. San Antonio Metropolitan Transit Authority, 202
Garrity v. New Jersey, 202
Gauss, M. S., "Nonprofit Boards and Perceptions of Funding," 3–18
Gemeinschaft, 267
Generic management approach: defined, 275; development and application of, 275–278; disadvantages of, for small nonprofit organizations, 278–284, 285–286
Geodemographic segmentation, 145–146, 150, 152, 153. See also Segmentation
Georgia, liability in, 71
German folklore, 295
German-speaking countries, 111–112
Gesellschaft, 267
Gidron, B., "Human Service Organizations and Self-Help Groups: Can They Collaborate?" 159–172
Gift giving: for community bonding, 297, 298; and corporate philanthropy, 291–294, 296–300, 453–455; determinants of, 54; versus economic exchange, 292–294, 296–297; in history, folklore, and culture, 294–296; predictors of, 144–145; and reciprocity norms, 292, 295–296, 297, 299, 453–455; religious, 53–66, 223–224; social functions of, 293–294, 296–299; for status recognition, 298. See also Corporate philanthropy; Donors; Motivations, donor; Religious giving
Gift types: by development effort level, 417–429; and major donor relationship, 414–431. See also Bequests; Donations; Irrevocable trusts; Outright major gifts
Gimwali, 296
Giving and Volunteering in the United States, 4345
Giving USA, 445
Glennan, K., 395, 396, 397
Governance: of merged organizations, 385; and organizational change, 86
Governing the Commons: The Revolution of Institutions for Collective Action, reviewed, 311–315
Government: funding by, and human services facilities, 128–130, 131, 136; nonprofit liability to, 74; as nonprofit stakeholder, 328; policies of, and nonprofit sector, 99–108, 136; relationship of, to nonprofit organizations, 173–196. See also Policy; Public sector
Government contracting, 109–110, 118, 328; and board influence, 173–196
"Governmental Policies and the Nonprofit Sector," 99–108
Grande, C. A., "Improving Direct Mail Fundraising Through Segmentation Research," 141–158
Grant writing, 218–219
Greater Cleveland Growth Association, 395
Greater London Council (GLC), 109
Greene v. Art Institute of Chicago, 70
Grid methodology, 341–343; findings from, 343–354
Gronbjerg, K. A., 446; "Structure and Adequacy of Human Service Facilities: Challenges for Nonprofit Managers," 117–140
Groupthink, 15
Growth rates, by industry, 23–26, 33

H

Hagley Museum and Library, 223
Hands Across America, 251
Handsnet, 322
Hanson, K. O., "Carol Marshall," 213–216
Harlan, S. L., "Board Members' Influence on the Government-Nonprofit Relationship," 173–196
Harris, M., "The Organization of Religious Congregations: Tackling the Issues," 261–274
Hasenfeld, Y., "Human Service Organizations and Self-Help Groups: Can They Collaborate?" 159–172
Health organizations: mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31–33; survey of donors to, 146–155. See also Hospitals
Heimovics, R. D., "The Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership," 233–248

Herman, R. D., "The Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership," 233–248
Hickson, D. J., Writers on Organizations, 93–97
Himmelstein, J. L., 453–455
Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 222–223
Hodgkinson, V., 444–445
Hoge, D. R., "Religious Giving in the United States," 53–66
Holt v. College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, 72, 73
Hoover, H., 223
Hoover Institution, 223
Hospitals: cooperation of, with self-help groups, 165, 166; executive compensation in, 105
Housing organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25–26, 27, 29
How to Recruit Great Board Members: A Guide for Nonprofit Agencies, reviewed, 439–441
"How Well Is Debt Managed by Nonprofits?", 110–111
Howard, J., 402–403
Human behavior research, 217, 218
Human Care Service Directory of Metropolitan Chicago (HCSD), 121
Human resources frame, 237–238, 240, 242, 243. See also Personnel headings
Human service organizations: advantages to, of cooperation, 169–170; collaboration of, with self-help groups, 159–172; facility-related issues in, 117–140; fiscal constraints on, 119–120, 131–132; funding perceptions in, 3–16; funding resources of, 127–132, 135; increasing need for, 118–119, 134; internal resources of, 127–128; organizational perspective on, 161–163; trends in, 122–123
"Human Service Organizations and Self-Help Groups: Can They Collaborate?" 159–172

I

Ideology, and mergers, 384, 387, 388–389. See also Espoused statements; Values
Illinois, 117–140, 446
Ilsley, P. J., Enhancing the Volunteer Experience: New Insights on Strengthening Volunteer Participation, Learning, and Commitment, 439–441
"Improving Direct Mail Fundraising Through Segmentation Research," 141–158
"In Search of Common Ground About the Commons," 311–315
Income level, and religious giving, 54, 59–60
INDEPENDENT SECTOR, 101, 102, 121, 143, 144, 304, 317, 317–319, 321, 444, 445
Index to Legal Periodicals, 104
Individualism, 276
Inductive research methodologies, 338, 339–340; and repertory grid methodology, 341–343; types of, 356
Information management systems, of Rural Community Councils, 43, 46, 47
Information sharing, 379
Information technology, and fundraising techniques, 217, 218–219
Ingram, R. T., 341, 345, 350–353
Institute for Policy Studies, Johns Hopkins University, 446
Institute for Public Policy and Social Research, Michigan State University, 446
Interdependence, in volunteers, 362–363, 369, 370, 372. See also Sociocentric culture
Intermediary agencies, 38, 39–40. See also Local development agencies
International Society for Third-Sector Research (ISTR), 102
Internet, 103, 322
Intervention strategies, 162
"Interview with Andy Falender, An," 85–91
"Interview with Robert L. Payton, An," 303–309
Investment strategy case vignette, 213–216
Investor philanthropic style, 256, 257–258
Irrevocable trusts: by alumni, 424–426, 429; and donor/development-effort relationship, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 430
Irwin, D., 109–110
"Is There a Third Way? A Comparative Analysis of How the Law Treats Workers in the Nonprofit, Private-for-Profit, and Public Sectors," 197–211
Issues in Voluntary and Non-Profit Management: A Reader, reviewed, 93–97

J

Jerusalem, Israel, 377–378, 379–381
Jewish congregations, 262, 263; role of clergy in, 264, 265, 267
Jewish philanthropy, 55, 58; archives of, 223
Job tenure, of executive director, 179, 185, 187, 190
Joint Community Neighborhood Management (JCNM), 381
Joint venture, for interorganizational collaboration, 167–169
Jones v. Grant, 71, 80
Journal of Policy Analysis and Management, 104
Journals, on governmental policy, 103–104
"Jurkiewicz, C. L., The Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership," 233–248

K

Katona, E. H., "The Development of State-Level Nonprofit Data Bases," 317–325
Kearns, K. P., "Effective Nonprofit Board Members as Seen by Executives and Board Chairs," 337–358
Keiser-Ruemmele, J., "The Development of State-Level Nonprofit Data Bases," 317–325
Kelly, G., 341–342
Keynes, M., "Managing Voluntary and Non-Profit Enterprises," 93–97
Klausen, K. K., "On the Malfunction of the Generic Approach in Small Voluntary Associations," 275–290
Koinonia, 313
Krashinsky, M., "In Search of Common Ground About the Commons," 311–315
Kruger, E. J., "Nonprofit Boards and Perceptions of Funding," 3–18
Kula, 294, 296

L

Land-use/acquisition issues, case study, 393–409
Landgraf v. USA Film Products, 208
Language: for corporate philanthropy, 291–292; for nonprofit/voluntary sector, 311–315
Law: and nonprofit stakeholders, 327; regarding nonprofit liability, 67–83; regarding personnel management, 197–211. See also Liability; Personnel laws; Tax law
Laycock, D. K., 327–328
Leadership: board-centered, 236, 246; in board members, 342, 349, 353; conventional wisdom on, 233–248; current crisis in, 245; effective, research studies on, 233–248; elitism in, case study, 393–409; frame analysis of, 237–238; human resources frame of, 237–238, 240, 242, 243; model for effective, 246–246; political competition over, 383, 386; political frame of, 234, 236–237, 238, 240, 241–247; psychological centrality of chief executive, 235–236, 246; structural frame of, 237, 240, 242–243; style, for organizational change, 87, 89, 90–91. See also Chief executive officers
Leadership and Management of Volunteer Programs: A Guide for Volunteer Administrators, reviewed, 439–441
Leeds v. Harrison, 70, 77
Legal advising, 13
Legal organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27
Legitimacy, board, 178–179, 183, 184, 187, 188, 190, 191, 193
Legitimation strategies, 28, 30
Lewin's field theory, 383
Liability, nonprofit, 67–83; by donor type, 70–74; to executive officers, 72–73; issues in, 79–81; to members, 76–78; and nonprofit organizations, 67–68. See also Accountability; Stakeholders
"Liability of Nonprofits to Donors, The," 67–83
Liaison, 166
Library of Congress, 223
Lindahl, W. E., "The Major Gift Donor Relationship: An Analysis of Donors and Contributions," 411–432
List of values (LOV), 144–145, 146, 150, 151, 155
Litigation: and nonprofit liability, 67–83; and personnel management, 197–211. See also Liability; Personnel laws
Loans, for capital improvements, 134, 137

Local development agencies (LDAs): defined, 38–39; evaluation of, 48; financial support for, 48; government's involvement in, 48–49; preconditions for, 47–48; role of, in Britain, 39–40; and Rural Community Councils, 42–48; study of, 40–42; types of, 38. See also Rural Community Councils
"Local Development Agencies: Supporting Voluntary Action," 37–51
Lohmann, R. A., The Commons: New Perspectives on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action, 311–315
Lombardo, B., "Corporate Philanthropy: Gift or Business Transaction?" 291–301
Looking Good and Doing Good: Corporate Philanthropy and Business Power (Himmelstein), 454
Lopez v. Medford Community Center, Inc., 74
Lutheran Church, 56, 57, 61

M

McClure v. Salvation Army, 201
McCurley, S., "Recruiting, Developing, and Managing Volunteers, 439–441
Major donor relationship: with alumni bequest donors, 427–429; with alumni irrevocable trust donors, 424–426, 429; with alumni outright major donors, 421–423, 429; with alumni versus nonalumni, 414–431; and development effort, 414, 416, 417–431; costs of, 431; and gift type, 414–429; importance of, to fundraising strategies, 430–431; with nonalumni outright major donors, 423–424, 429; and past giving behavior, 414, 418, 421, 429, 430; with repeat donors, 429; study of, methodology for, 413–414, 417; time frame in, 421–429, 430; trends in, 429; and value of major gifts, 412–413
"Major Gift Donor Relationship, The: An Analysis of Donors and Contributions," 411–432
Management: ethical dimensions of, 277; generic versus special approach to, 275, 285–286; of Rural Community Councils, 42–43; techniques of, 275–278. See also Generic management approach
"Managing Voluntary and Non-Profit Enterprises," reviewed, 93–97
Mandel Center, 319, 323, 445
Market orientation, 285–286, 362
Market segmentation. See Segmentation research
Marketing: approach to fundraising, 412; cause-related, 249–260; generic techniques of, 275, 276, 278, 282, 283–284
Mather, E. R., 396–397
Mather, W. G., 396
Media organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27
Media vignette, 433–438
Meindl, J. R., "Volunteers from Corporations: Work Cultures Reflect Values Similar to the Voluntary Organization's," 359–375
Melanesia, 294
Members: legal rights of, 73–74, 76–79; recruitment of, in small sports associations, 280; of religious congregations, 262
Mergers: as community buffer, 383; driving forces in process of, 383; failure rate of, 379; impact of, 378–379; literature review on, 378–379; methodology for study of, 381–382; and organizational ideologies, 384, 387, 388–389; and organizational structure, 384, 387–388; organizations in case study of, 379–381, 382, 384–385; reasons for, 377–378; restraining forces in process of, 386; success versus failure in, 388–389
"Merging Nonprofit Organizations: Analysis of a Case Study," 377–391
Miller, L. E., "Nonprofit Boards and Perceptions of Funding," 3–18
Miller v. Alderhold, 71
Millis, J., 395, 396, 397, 399, 400, 401
Minimum wage and hour law, 197, 200; changes in, 199; in nonprofit versus other organizations, 201, 203, 206; and religious organizations, 201–202. See also Fair Labor Standards Act, 198
Minnesota, 20–34, 320
Minnesota Council of Nonprofits, 320, 323
Mission: board members' commitment to, 346, 350; conflict of, with constituents, 393–409; and nondistribution constraint,

Mission (continued)
69; of nonprofit versus other sectors, 285–286, 305; of self-help and human service organizations, 162, 164; and work organization culture, 360
Mission programs, 54
Mitchell v. Pilgrim Holiness Church Corp., 201–202
Mixer, J. R., Principles of Professional Fundraising: Useful Foundations for Successful Practice, 217–219
Model Employment Termination Act, 207
Monopoly: in elite trusteeship, 404; in mergers, 386
Montana, 199
Moral action, 304–305
Morse, R. W., 403
Mortality/survival, 19–36; definitions of, 21–22; by industry, 23–26; and organizational age, 26–27, 34; and organizational size, 27–28, 34; and organizational strategies, 28, 30–33, 34
Motivation: of personnel, 378; theories of, 361, 362; of volunteers, and work culture, 359–375
Motivations, donor, 142, 143–146; and cause-related marketing, 249–250, 252, 253, 256–258; corporate, 250–251, 252–253, 293, 298; Dawson's scale of, 143–144, 147–150, 151; for major gifts, 411–412; Seven Faces framework of, 256–258, 411; value of understanding, 154–155
Mutual referrals, 164–165

N

Nagle, A. E., "Structure and Adequacy of Human Service Facilities: Challenges for Nonprofit Managers," 117–140
National Academic Centers Council (NACC), 321
National Center for Charitable Statistics (NCCS), 444, 445, 447. See also INDEPENDENT SECTOR
National Council of Nonprofit Associations (NCAC), 321, 445
National Tax Association-Tax Institute of America, 103
National Tax Journal, 104
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 121, 317–318, 320, 444, 447–448
Native Americans, 294, 295
NCIB profile of an effective board member, 340–341, 345, 350–353
Neighborhood self-management organizations (NSMOs), 379–380, 381; versus community services organizations, 382, 384–385
Neighborhoods, as trusteeship constituencies, 393–409
New revenue strategies, 28
New York City, 118, 252, 402, 446
New York State, 105, 180–191, 251–260
New York Times, 401
Niche, board-members' understanding of, 347, 351
Nondistribution constraint, 69
Nonprofit Almanac: Dimensions of the Independent Sector, 317, 444
Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector Quarterly, 102, 103
"Nonprofit Boards and Perceptions of Funding," 3–18
Nonprofit Management and Leadership, 103
"Nonprofit Management Education Through Distance Learning," 93–97
Nonprofit organizations: commercial activities of, 200, 202; debate among, regarding cause-related marketing, 250–251; finances of, data sources on, 443–451; international, 112; legal liabilities of, 67–83; mergers of, 377–391; relationship of, to government, 173–196; religious congregations as, 268–271; roles of, 285–286; special management orientation for, 285–286; use of generic management techniques for, 275–286
Nonprofit sector: changes in, 19, 23–26, 68; data bases on, 317–323; employment rates in, 197; governmental policies and, 99–108; legal environment for personnel management in, 197–211; planning in, 109–110; public confidence in, 303–304; stakeholders in, 327–328; in U.S. versus European countries, 111–112, 278–279
Nonprofit Sector Research Fund, 448

Nonprofit Sector Research Project, 445–446, 448
Nonprofit Times, The, 104
North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS), 320
Northwestern University, 411–432

O

Occupancy costs, recovery of, 128–130, 131
O'Connell, B., 111–112
Ohio, 319, 393–409
"On the Malfunction of the Generic Approach in Small Voluntary Associations," 275–290
O'Neill, M., "An Interview with Robert L. Payton," 303–309
Open systems framework, 268, 276
Open University, United Kingdom, 2, 93–95
Organization of Congregations (OC) study, 262–270
"Organization of Religious Congregations, The: Tackling the Issues," 261–274
Organizational analysis, of religious congregations, 266–268
Organizational change. See Change, organizational
Organizational culture: assessment of, methods for, 372–373; defined, 360; effects of, on corporate professional volunteers, 359–375; egocentric versus sociocentric, 361–373; interorganizational transfer of, 359–375; measures for, 366; and mergers, 378, 384; and socialization, 373; study on, methodology for, 364–368; in work and voluntary organizations, 360–364
Organizational growth: inappropriateness of, to small voluntary associations, 280–281; in merged organizations, 379, 387–388
Organizational structure: of human service and self-help organizations, 162–163; and leadership, 237; and mergers, 384, 387–388; of religious congregations, 261–274; specialized, for small associations, 282–283, 284, 285–286. See also Structural frame
Osborne, S., "Local Development Agencies: Supporting Voluntary Action," 37–51
Ostrom, E., Governing the Commons: The Revolution of Institutions for Collective Action, 311–315
Outright major gifts: by alumni, 421–423, 429; and donor/development-effort relationship, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 430; by nonalumni trustees and philanthropists, 423–424, 429
Oversight, 67–83

P

Paas, D., "Shark Fundraising at the Foundation," 433–438
Papua, 294
Patino, D. X., 111–111
Paton, R., Issues in Voluntary and Non-Profit Management: A Reader, 93–97
Pension regulation, 197, 199; in nonprofit versus other organizations, 200, 201, 206–207, 208; in religious organizations, 201. See also Employee Retirement Income Security Act
Performance, organizational: board influence on, 4–6; chief executives' influence on, 4–5, 14; effects of uncertainty on, 15
Personal constructs, 341–342
Personal sacrifice for others, 363, 367, 369, 370, 372
Personnel, effects of mergers on, 378–379, 385, 386, 388, 389
Personnel laws: for commercial nonprofits, 202; implications of, for nonprofit personnel management, 204–205, 207–208; and importance of personnel to nonprofits, 197–198; for nonprofit versus for-profit and public sectors, 197–211; for nonprofit sector, 204–205; for private clubs, 206; for religious organizations, 201–202
Personnel management, legal environment for, 197–211
Personnel oversight, 12
Philanthropic Studies Index, 104
Philanthropy: archival sources for study of, 221–224; defined, 221–222; education about, 305–309; Seven Faces framework of styles of, 256–258, 411; service as, 308–309; social class and, 308–309. See also Corporate philanthropy; Donors; Major donor relationship

Philanthropy Monthly, 102, 104
Plain Dealer, 395
Planned gifts. See Bequests; Irrevocable trusts
Planned Parenthood, 454
Planning: and funding certainty, 12, 15; in nonprofit sector, 109–110. See also Strategy
"Planning Responses to Voluntary Sector Crises," 109–110
Pledging, 60–62
Policy: and board members, 348, 352; for executive compensation, 104–105; for human service facilities, 136–137; researcher-practitioner collaboration on, 99–108; resources on, 101–104; and self-help groups, 159–160; for tax exemption, 100, 105–107
Political conflict: and corporate philanthropy, 454; in mergers, 383, 388
"Political Dimension of Effective Nonprofit Executive Leadership, The" 233–248
Political frame of leadership, 234, 236–237; criteria for coding, 240; enactment versus espousal of, 244–245, 246; and frame analysis, 238; importance of, to effectiveness, 241–247
Politicking, 13
Population ecology theory, 20, 33, 34
Portrait of the Independent Sector, A: The Activities and Finances of charitable Organizations, 317, 445
Potlatch, 294, 295, 298
Practice ideologies, 162
Presbyterian Church, 55
Prince, R. A., "Cause-Related Marketing, Philanthropy, and the Arts," 249–260
Principles of Professional Fundraising: Useful Foundations for Successful Practice, reviewed, 217–219
Prisoners' Dilemma, the, 311, 313, 314
Private-for-profit sector: employment laws in, 197–211; joint ventures with, 249–260; management techniques of, 275–284; orientation of, 286; relationship of, with private sector, 298, 299–300. See also Corporate philanthropy
Privatization, 111, 174
Problem-framer role of board members, 349, 353
Problem-solver role of board members, 347, 351
Professionalization: and board behavior, 178, 185, 187; of fundraisers, 217, 218; and public confidence, 304; of small associations, 282, 283–284
Professionals: fundraisers as, 217, 218, 412; in merged organizations, 386, 388; in self-help groups, 160–161, 163; as volunteers, 359–375
Program oversight, 12
Project development, 44–45
Prospect identification, 412. See also Segmentation research
Protestant churches: archives of, 224; giving in, 53–55, 56–57, 61, 62–63
Psychographic scales. See Value-scales
Psychological centrality of leadership, 235–236, 246; versus diversity, 276–277. See also Leadership
Public Administration Review, 104
Public image: and board involvement (vignette), 433–438; and corporate volunteers, 371; development of, 13
Public sector: dominance of, versus corporate philanthropy, 299; employment law in, 197–211; orientations of, 286. See also Government; Personnel laws
Puffer, S. M., "Volunteers from Corporations: Work Cultures Reflect Values Similar to the Voluntary Organization's," 359–375
Pugh, D. S., Writers on Organizations, 93–97
"Pursuit of Mission: The Rise and Fall of Elite Nonprofit Leadership," 393–409

R

Rational systems model, 282
Reagan administration, 3, 19
Reciprocity: in corporate philanthropy, 292, 295–296, 297, 299, 453–455; as donor motive, 143, 151, 154–155
Recreational organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27. See also Sports associations
"Recruiting, Developing, and Managing Volunteers," 439–441
Reebok, 249
Referrals, client, 164–165
Religious giving, 53–66; Catholic versus Protestant, 53–55; and church involvement, 54, 55, 58–59; and congregational size, 62; and denomination, 56–57, 63; effect of pledging on, 60–62; individual predictors of, 59–62; Jewish, 55, 58; prevalence of, 55–56; research on, 58–62; research topics for, 62–63; and satisfaction, 62; trends in, 53–58. See also Congregations

"Religious Giving in the United States," 53–66
Religious organizations: archives of, 223–224; educational, 60; involvement in, 54, 55, 58–59, 60, 62–63; organizational issues of, 261–274; personnel laws and, 199, 200, 201–202, 207; volunteerism in, 63. See also Congregations
Reorganization, 284
Repayer philanthropic style, 256–257, 258
Repertory grid methodology, 341–343; findings from, 343–354
Representation, board member, 348, 353
Research, philanthropic: archives for, 221–224; data bases for, 317–323; interdisciplinary, 312–313, 314–315. See also Data bases; Education
Research methodologies: for board-influence study, 180–184; for board-member assessment criteria studies, 338–339, 356; for cause-related marketing study, 251–252; for human service facilities study, 121–122; inductive versus deductive, 338, 339–340, 341, 342, 356; for major donor study, 413–414, 417; for merger study, 381–382; for religious-giving study, 59; repertory grid, 341–343; for work culture of volunteers study, 364–369
Research Reports: "Archival Sources and the Study of American Philanthropy," 221–224; "The Development of State-Level Nonprofit Data Bases," 317–325; "Governmental Policies and the Nonprofit Sector," 99–108; "Sources of Data on Nonprofit Finance," 433–451
Resource-acquisition strategies, 21; and organizational survival, 28, 30–33. See also Funding; Fundraising
Resource allocation: for human service facilities, 119–120; and political leadership, 236–237, 238, 246; in Protestant organizations, 54–55, 63; in sociocentric cultures, 363
Resource dependency: and board behavior, 179–180, 182, 183, 185, 192; and coalition, 166–167; and government contracting relationship, 177; and human service facilities, 135; in human service organizations and self-help groups, 162, 163–164; measurement of, 182, 183; and mergers, 383; and organizational survival, 33, 34; and political frame, 244; of small sports associations, 279; and strategic management, 278; theory of, 20–21, 163–164
Resource-developer board member role, 347, 352
Resource scarcity, and mergers, 377–378, 383
Retirement security, and investment strategy, 213–214. See also Pension regulation
Retrenchment strategies, 28, 30
Revenue dependence. See Resource dependency
Revenue instability/complexity, 176–177, 182, 185, 187–191, 192–193. See also Uncertainty
Rights of inspection, 76
RLIN, 221
Rockefeller, J. D., Jr., 223
Rockefeller Archive Center, 222, 223
Role modeling, 277
Roles: of boards of directors, 174, 176–176; changing of, in merged organizations, 386; of clergy, 263–265, 268, 270; of executive directors, 179; in human service and self-help organizations, 162–163. See also Boards of directors
Rural Community Councils (RCCs), 38; effectiveness of, 46–47; funding of, 45–46; internal management of, 42–43; involvement of, in project development, 44–45; as network agents, 43–44, 46; roles and activities of, 42, 43, 44; study of, 40–42; value-for-money of, 45–46
Rural Development Commission (RDC), 40–48
Russell Sage Foundation, 223

S

Sage, M. O., 223
Saidel, J. R., "Board Members' Influence on the Government-Nonprofit Relationship," 173–196

St. Paul, Minnesota, 20–34
Satisfaction: and corporate giving, 255–256, 258–259; and religious giving, 62
Scandals, 303–304
Scenario planning, 109–110
Schmid, H., "Merging Nonprofit Organizations: Analysis of a Case Study," 377–391
Scott Paper, 249
Section 403(b) plans, 207
Secularization, 264–265
Segmentation research: common demographics model of, 147; and Dawson's motivational scale, 143–144, 147–150, 151; for direct mail fundraising, 141–158; future research for, 155–157; geodemographic model of, 145–146, 150, 152, 153; list of values model of, 144–145, 146, 150, 151; models of, compared, 152–154
Self-esteem, and donor motivation, 143, 151
Self-help groups, 159–172; clearinghouses for, 159–160; cooperation of, with human service organizations, 163–171; organizational perspective on, 161–163; prevalence of, 159; professionals' involvement with, 160–161, 163
Self-interest: and cause-related marketing, 250–251; and corporate philanthropy, 293; correlations of, with volunteering, 368; and egocentric versus sociocentric work cultures, 361–362, 363, 366, 367, 372; measures for, 366
Selflessness, board member, 348, 352
Service area, and board behavior, 179–180, 185, 187, 190, 191
Service technology, 162; of merged organizations, 385
Seven Faces framework of philanthropic styles, 256–258, 411
Sex, and corporate philanthropy, 254
Seymour, H., 217–218
"Shark Fundraising at the Foundation," 433–438
Size, organizational: and board behavior, 177, 182–183, 185, 187, 189, 190, 191; and cause-related marketing, 251; and generic management approach, 278; of human service organizations, 122–123, 124; measurement of, 182–183; and organizational survival, 20, 26–28, 34; and religious giving, 62
Smith, J. P., 2; "Nonprofit Management Education Through Distance Learning," 93–97
Social constructionist paradigm, 340
Social marketing, 278
Socialite philanthropic style, 256, 257, 258
Socialization, 373
Sociocentric work culture, 361–362; components of, 362–363, 367; correlations of, with volunteering, 366–370; versus egocentric work culture, 361–373; United Way example of, 363; measures for, 366
Solow, R., 313
"Sources of Data on Nonprofit Finance," 443–451
Spech, H., 225–227
Specialization, 387
Sports associations: characteristics of, 279; generic management approaches in, 275–284
Spring Research Forum, 101
Staff: board member rapport with, 348, 352; expectations of, regarding board's role, 338, 354. See also Chief executive officers; Employees; Personnel headings; Professionals
Stakeholders: of board members, 337–338; in nonprofit sector, 327–328; in religious congregations, 262–263, 268
Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code, 320, 444, 448
Standards, for nonprofit organizations, 74–75, 79, 80
Standing, of donors, 69–70, 80
Stapleton, D. D., "Pursuit of Mission: The Rise and Fall of Elite Nonprofit Leadership," 393–409
Stapleton, D. H., "Archival Sources and the Study of American Philanthropy," 221–224
State government agencies, as data sources, 320, 445
State-level data bases: for financial data, 445; national clearinghouse for, 321–323; on nonprofit sector, 318–321
State of Nonprofit Michigan, The, 445
State orientation, 285–286
State University of New York, Stony Brook, 224

Statutes: and governmental policies, 99–100; and nonprofit liability, 69, 76. See also Law
Steinberg, R., "Governmental Policies and the Nonprofit Sector," 99–108
Stern v. Lucy Webb Hayes, 80
Stewardship, 57–58, 60–62
Stone, M. M., "An Interview with Andy Falender," 85–91
Strategy: for direct mail fundraising, 141–158; organizational, 28, 30–33, 34; organizational, and mergers, 384; for organizational change, 88–89; and planning, 109–110, 277; for small sports organizations, 278, 281–283
Structural frame, 237, 240; in behavioral enactments, 242; in espoused statements, 242–243. See also Organizational structure
"Structure and Adequacy of Human Service Facilities: Challenges for Nonprofit Managers," 117–140
Survival, organizational. See Mortality/survival
Symbolic frame, 238, 242, 243
Synagogues. See Congregations; Jewish congregations; Religious organizations

T

Talents, board member, 342, 346, 350
Tameny v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 203
Tax deduction, as donor motivation, 144, 151
Tax exemption, 100, 105–107
Tax law: classification scheme for, 317; and executive compensation, 104–105; and policy analysis, 100, 105–107. See also Classification schemes; U.S. Internal Revenue Service
Telemarketing, 304
Televangelists, 304
Tenth Amendment, 202
Theories-in-use, 239; and inductive versus deductive methodologies, 339, 340, 356. See also Behavioral enactments
Toussaint v. Blue Cross & Blue Shield, 203
Treasury efficiency criterion, 107
Tricker, M., "Local Development Agencies: Supporting Voluntary Action," 37–51
Trobriand Islanders, 294, 296
"Trustee for charitable purposes," 69
Trustees: elitism in, case study, 393–409; legal rights of, 73; and liability, 75–76
Trusts. See Irrevocable trusts
Turnover rates, 379

U

Uncertainty: board influence on, 4–16, 176–177, 188–189; as catalyst to mergers, 377, 378, 381, 383; measurement of, 182; pervasiveness of, 3; positive effects of, 15. See also Revenue instability/complexity
"Unincorporated association," 69
United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America v. General Electric Co., 202
United Kingdom: Local Development Agencies in, 37–51; management courses in, 93–97; religious congregations in, 261–274; voluntary sector in, 278
U.S. Baptist congregation, 266, 267
U.S. Bureau of the Census data, 444–445, 447, 448
U.S. Congress, 206
U.S. Federal Tax Code, Section 501(c)(3), and policy making, 100
U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 317, 318–319; and classification schemes, 448–449; Form 990 data, 319, 320, 444, 446–0447, 448; Form 1028, 319; Statistics of Income Division (SOI) data, 444, 446–447, 448. See also Tax law
United States Sanitary Commission archives, 223
United Way of America, 104, 303, 304, 363
United Way of Buffalo and Erie County, 364–369
Universities: archives in, 223, 224; culture of, 306; and land-use/neighborhood issues, case study, 393–409; philanthropy education in, 305–307
University Circle, formation of, 393–396
University Circle Development Foundation (UCDF): achievements of, 403–404; creation of, 396–399; conflicts over master plan of, 399–403; decline of, 403–405; and University Circle urban district, 394–395
University Circle Incorporated (UCI), 404

University of California, Berkeley, 225–227
University of San Francisco Law Review, 104
Unrelated business income, 105
Urban renewal projects, 395396
USNONPROFIT-L list-serve, 103

V

Value-scales, 142, 144–145
Values: conflicts over, 283–284, 388–389; and donor behavior, 144–145, 146, 150, 151; and management of small associations, 283–284, 285–286; in nonprofit versus other sectors, 304–305; and organizational change in congregations, 265–266, 268; of volunteers and work cultures, 359–375. See also Motivations, donor
Values, Attitudes, and Lifestyles (VALS), 144, 145
Values-guardian role, 176, 181, 182
Van Hoomissen, T., 327–328
Vavra, T. G., "Improving Direct Mail Fundraising Through Segmentation Research," 141–158
Vision. See Symbolic frame
Voelker v. St. Louis Mercantile Library Association, 70, 73
Voluntary association, 304
Voluntary sector. See Nonprofit sector
Voluntas: The International Journal of Voluntary and Non-Profit Organisations, 103
Volunteerism: in religious organizations, 63; in small sports associations, 279, 281, 281
Volunteers: attitudes of, towards volunteering, 366, 368, 369, 370, 372; books about, 439–441; corporate professional, and work cultures, 359–375; as fundraisers, 412; managerial versus psychological approach to, 440; motives and values of, 359–375; number of, and organizational survival, 27; performance of, 366, 369–370; recruitment/retention of, 360, 370–371, 373, 439–441; and sociocentric work culture, 366–370; survey of, 364–369
"Volunteers from Corporations: Work Cultures Reflect Values Similar to the Voluntary Organization's," 359–375

W

Wade, J., 393–394
Wade Park, 393–394. See also University Circle Development Foundation
Wallace Alexander Gerbode Foundation, 225–227
Ward's Cove Packing Co. v. Antonio, 199
Watergate, 303–304
Welfare organizations, mortality/survival of, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31–33
Western Reserve University, 394, 400–401, 402
"What Affects Nonprofit Survival?" 19–36
Why Charity? (Douglas), 305
Wilson, M., 440
Wolfenden Committee, 38, 39
Work culture. See Organizational culture
Worker Bee role of board members, 349, 353
Writers on Organizations, reviewed, 93–97
Wrongful discharge, 199, 203

Y

Yale University, 224
Young, D. R., "Editors' Notes," 1–2, 115–116, 231–232, 333–335